Shooting On Enon Drive
Update**

(Roanoke County, VA) - Police responded to the residence in the 8000 block of Enon Drive at approximately 4:10 A.M. on Monday, May 14 for a reported loud party. Police spoke with residents and no enforcement action was taken. Just before 7:00 AM, police responded again to the residence for reports of shots fired. When police arrived they found two victims with gunshot wounds who were transported to the hospital. Police observed a third person deceased from a gunshot wound. That individual has been identified as Keonte K. Johnson, 23, of Salem. Police have interviewed the two individuals who were transported to the hospital with gunshot wounds. Those two continue to recover. Their identities are not being released at this time. No arrests have been made, and witnesses and others with information are still being interviewed by police.
