- Additional Remarks: On August 13, 2011, officers were dispatched to Plantation Road near Orlando Avenue for an intoxicated subject walking in the middle of the road. During the course of the investigation, officers identified the subject as Troy Henley who had assaulted two family members and a family friend. Information was provided that suggested the subject had gone back to his residence and had weapons inside. The Roanoke County SWAT team responded and was able to take the subject into custody without incident. All injuries to the victims were non-life threatening and none of the subjects were transported to the hospital. The names of the family members are being withheld at this time.
