County based on the idea provided by her husband; and

WHEREAS, the seal depicts a Native American, representative of the people who hunted and fished in the Roanoke Valley, along with the scenic beauty of the area; and

WHEREAS, the Rhodenizers prevailed upon the Board of Supervisors to consider adoption of the seal as the symbol of Roanoke County; and

WHEREAS, in June, 1968, twenty-five years ago, the seal designed by the Rhodenizers was officially adopted by the Roanoke County Board of Supervisors, and has been used since that time to identify Roanoke County.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of Roanoke County, Virginia, expresses its appreciation to Clifford and Betty Rhodenizer for designing the seal and for bringing their ideas to the County for consideration; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors congratulates the Rhodenizers on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the adoption of the seal.

On motion of Supervisor Kohinke to adopt the resolution, and carried by the following recorded vote:
