

MEMBERSHIP FORM

Enjoy the benefits and rewards of being a member of the Friends of the Roanoke County Public Library.

As a member of the Friends of the Roanoke County Public Library, you have joined a special group of people who support and believe in the importance of our libraries. In addition, you can get even more involved either by volunteering or joining the friends of the library board. In any case, membership entitles you to attend our annual membership dinner and get early-bird access to our book sales.

Stay informed by visiting the library's website: rocolibrary.org.

You can also follow the library on social media:
