

A possible town center view facing west on Route 419 from the US 220 interchange.

Last week, the Roanoke County Board of Supervisors and Planning Commission reviewed the proposed implementation measures for the draft 419 Town Center Plan.

Several citizens attended the joint work session. You may view the presentation online and read an article about the session by the Roanoke Times.

Next Steps:

The planning team is currently revising the draft Plan based on public feedback and comments from the Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors. The Planning Commission will continue to hold work sessions during their regular monthly meetings over the summer. Once the plan has been revised, the Board of Supervisors will hold a final public hearing to consider adoption of the Plan.

Visit the Website

You have received this email because you gave Roanoke County your email address as part of a community meeting or planning effort. You may unsubscribe from this list using the link at the bottom of this email if you do not wish to be contacted by Roanoke County in the future.

For more information:

Visit www.roanokecountyva.gov/419

Or contact Philip Thompson by email or phone (540) 772-2029.

